FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Friends

Last week we took a look back at Christmas 2025; this week were looking ahead to 2026.

Let's start with our BUILDINGS: After a busy year in 2026 with major improvements at St Bart's Ogwell and All Saints Highweek, and minor repairs and maintenance across all 5 churches, the PCC are looking to push ahead with the redevelopment plans at St Paul's. As I write, the 30-day consultation period on our plans which began in mid-December is coming towards an end. The next stage is for the diocesan chancellor to check the plans and (God-willing) give his approval to the positive recommendation he has received from the Diocesan Advisory Committee who considered our plans throughout the second half of 2025. Whilst this process is on-going, quotes will be obtained for the PCC to consider. Assuming a suitable contractor can be found and the funding secured, we hope to begin the work in the early summer, during which time the congregation at St Paul's will be meeting in the hall. We anticipate the work taking 4-5 months.

Across the Parish, the PCC are also aiming to make progress on plans to upgrade the toilets at Abbotsbury Church and vastly improve the entrance lobby to make the church far more welcoming. These plans are still at an early stage. Quotes have also been sought for the internal redecoration of All Saints Highweek, something which will complete the recent refurbishment works there. Other minor works are also being considered.

Our ability to spend money on these projects is, largely reliant on the gifts and generosity of Christians from previous generations who have left large legacies directly to the church or to charitable bodies such as the Wolborough Ecclesiastical Charity, who exist to support the work of the church in our Parish. If you haven't yet done so, can I ask that you might also consider leaving a legacy in your will to our PCC so that our churches can continue God's work of reaching people with the good news of the gospel? Many people leave a proportion of their estate to the church - why not consider doing the same? Information is available to help you do that.

MISSION PARTNERS As you will know by now, the Parish now has three formal mission partners. Christians Against Poverty (Teignbridge), Barnabas Aid who support persecuted Christians around the world, and Rachael and Bernie Muluuta - who are currently both studying at Oak Hill College, London, prior to returning to work with Crosslinks in Uganda. Our aim this year is to develop these links in a number of ways:

- With information being available in all our churches.
- By including them in our regular intercessions and weekly prayers.
- And by inviting them to come and speak at our services.

More details will follow, but our hope is that as we are more engaged with mission further afield it will also inspire us to be more involved with mission here, in our own parish.

COURSES: As I'm sure you'll be aware, we will be starting two 3-2-1 courses over the next week. See below for details. This has been part of a strategy we've employed for a number of years that following major festivals we run courses that allow people to consider the claims of Jesus and Christian faith in a friendly, accessible and engaging way.

So, after Easter we will be running another course, perhaps the Identity Course or Christianity Explored, and then later in the year will be running the Bible Course again. This has recently been renewed with better resources and updated videos and is a fabulous way to get to know the Bible better.

During Lent we will also be running a course on prayer which will complement our Lent sermon series on that same topic. Prayer is something we know is vital, and something that most Christians struggle with. The aim is that the course will be practical, engaging and inspiring. Doctor Martin Lloyd Jones, the famous London preacher, called prayer the engine room of the church. He's right. The more we pray, individually and corporately, the more we draw close to God, and the more God works among us. Do look out for more details of that and come along.

In terms of our Sunday SERMON SERIES, some highlights will include some time in Peter's first epistle and another summer series in the Psalms. As well as concluding studies in Mark's Gospel, St Paul's and Abbotsbury will also have series in 1 Corinthians, and Isaiah, whilst All Saint's St Bart's and St Mary's will have time in the gospel of Matthew and the book of Exodus.

HOPES AND DREAMS... Last year we took a bold step to take the gospel into the town centre and, as a result, we have welcomed more people into church, some of them coming to faith for the first time, others finding a new home amongst us. My prayer is that we might see more of that this coming year whilst also seeing many others growing as disciples of Jesus and changing in character, wisdom and holiness.

We also grew our work in nursing homes and schools – taking the gospel out - and amongst children and young people in our churches - strengthening the gospel within. We also launched a women's Bible study group at St Paul's and new home group. My hope and prayer are that we might see these works grow even more this coming year.

Can I encourage you to join me in praying for these things? And for the confidence to ask God this question: what would you do in me and through me this year? May the LORD take us as we are, and mould us into those he made us to be, that we might shine like stars and point people to Christ our Saviour.

Grace and peace,

Dave
